Code of Conduct for Players and their Supporters.

Please note that failure to sign and abide by this code could mean a player being prohibited from participating in training sessions and matches.

The player agrees:

- To work hard towards the attainment of their full potential.
- To attend games punctually, behave with self-discipline and give reasonable notice and reasons for absence or lateness. Wear the Cove Cricket Club shirt for all matches (if the player has one), shirts to be tucked into trousers while playing.
- To abide by instructions given by the team manager or the coach.
- To practice the techniques/skills taught by the coaches and attempt to apply them in matches.
- To abide by the laws of cricket and the ethos of the game.
- To accept the umpires decision at all times and not show dissent.
- To play in a competitive manner but maintain the highest standards of sportsmanship.
- To accept victory and defeat with dignity and grace and to learn from defeat.
- Not to use foul language on or off the field of play.
- Not to attempt to intimidate or deliberately distract opponents by aggressive language or behaviour. To treat all players as you would like to be treated.
- To co-operate with coaches, team-mates and officials. Remember that without them there would be no game.
- To be proud of your club and remember that you are its representative at all times.
- REMEMBER THAT PLAYING CRICKET IS FUN.

The Parents/ Guardians agree to:

- To encourage and help the player meet targets, including abiding by the code of conduct.
- To support the player without pressure. Praise good work but refrain from criticising lapses.
- To set a good example to the player by encouraging and supporting the team in calm and controlled manner.
- To refrain from coaching or interfering with the coaching of players during coaching or at matches, as this is the responsibility of the coach or team manager.
- To know your child is playing cricket. The objective of Cove Cricket Club Junior Section is to provide a quality learning environment, to improve techniques but above all to encourage the enjoyment of the sport.
- If you have any concerns, you are entitled to approach the team manager/coach and discuss any issues with them or any of the following: Youth Development Officer (Paul Lynch), Chairman of the Club (Troy Tomsett) and Welfare Officer (Jo Pemberton), all of whose phone numbers are in the Handbook.
